IN APPRECIATION

We, the Yearbook Staff of '57, are deeply indebted to Mrs. Jean Findlater, our guidance director, who has helped us toward our future ambitions, and to our Homeroom teacher, Miss Grace B. Kiernan, who has been a wonderful friend and advisor to us, the Senior Class.

We are grateful also to Mr. Charles Randall, Mr. Henri Yelle, and Miss Joan Gefis. Without these people, our last year in school would not have been so rewarding. We hope the "Sojourn" will be an inspiration to future classes.

DEDICATION

Because of his untiring efforts to better Norton High School and because of his active and helpful support of all enterprises, we, the Class of 1957, dedicate the "Sojourn" to our superintendent Mr. Laurence G. Nourse.

FACULTY

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

You are now seeking happiness. You always will be seeking it in one way or another. What is true happiness? It is a by-product of being useful and contributing to the welfare and happiness of others. There fore, set for yourself high ideals and worth-while goals in life. Then in the pursuit of these ideals and goals, forget yourself. Think always of others. Be friendly and helpful in service to mankind. Thus you, yourself, will find happiness.

Laurence G. Nourse
Superintendent

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

"Dominie, Quo Vadis?"

A translation given to the above quotation by one person is, "Lord whither goest Thou?" Individually, the members of the class of 1957 have alreadv begun their thinking about the moral, mental, physical, and employment aspects of their future.

A desire to work must be created within one, the world presents numerous opportunities. They all require one to get enthused, to have faith in oneself, and to be in love with life.

A successful leader must have enthusiasm - enough to get excited and interest others. This has been true since history began.

To the members of the class of 1957, you must have your education, enthusiasm, and confidence to meet this competitive world.

SENIORS

CLASS HISTORY

As colts in grammar school, we had hardly been halter-broken, when, in 1953, we were called in from pasture to begin our training in earnest. Mr. Henri Katz and Miss Jenny Lingos were our trainers. Our leaders as yearlings were Roger Ashley, President; John Austin, Vice President; Kay Sullivan, Secretary; and Patricia Slocum, Treasurer. Our first attempt at crashing into the lime light was our Saint Patrick's Dance.

The next year, as two year olds, we changed our leaders to: Mary Ann Hanlon, first in command; Patricia Slocum, second in command; Kay Sullivan, keeper of the records; and Rosemarie Murphy collector of money. We were schooled over "low hurdles," our low hurdles being an assembly portraying the history of Norton High School, and a Mystery Dance in February with a poll spotlighting Norton's favorite song, "Melody of Love."

In our Junior year, training became even more intensive. Our head trainers were Miss Evelyn Rapoza and Mr. Walter Killis. Our leaders were changed to Kay Sullivan, Luther Carter, Gail Henlin, and Dorothy Dadmun. In November, we held a dance "Autum Leaves," which was a big success. There was also a spaghetti supper, which aided us in raising money for our future sojourn to our nation's capital. We also had many cake sales at Fernandes Super Market. For an assembly, we produced two skits, "The Big Playoff," and "What's My Racket?" A special feature was the "Four Sharps." The assembly was a "smashing " success.

The biggest event of our Junior year was the Junior-Senior Prom on the first of June. "Roman Holiday" was its theme, and the hall was festively decorated with hand painted murals, and Roman columns, which were climaxed by a beautiful, realistic fountain, banked by artificial lawn.

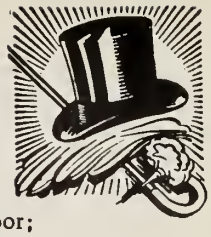
As four year olds, the last lap of training encouraged us and built up our stamina for the big day ahead-the fox hunt which would climax our schooling at Norton.

We were groomed for this event by Miss Grace B. Kiernan and Mrs. Jean Findlater. At the beginning of the year, we joined forces with Student Council to have a "Get Acquainted Dance." This was followed by a harvest supper. One of the most exciting and memorable events was the Senior Play, "Professor, How Could You?" This comedy proved to be a howling success.

In the month of December, a long awaited guest made his debut at the Christmas Dance. "Fabian" was a giant snowman, around whom we "rocked." The sale of Christmas cards, and cake sales, supplemented our funds, and enabled us to take, in February, a trip to Washington D.C. and New York.

The big day finally arrived, and on June 19, 1957, we were graduated. Our hurdles of school life behind us; our hurdles of life ahead of us.

CLASS POEM



DAYS GONE BY
by Diane Marshall

We are leaving Norton High School,
Through Graduation's door we've passed.
Now we know that we must go,
How could four years go so fast?

Our projects all are finished,
Our homework's finally done,
Throughout the years we shed some tears,
But think of all the fun!

Now we're leaving Norton,
And we're all a little sad,
Because, in turn, for all we learned--
We gave ALMOST all we had.

We're looking forward to the future,
But looking backward through that door;
And now you see, we wish that we
Had done a little more.

Looking forward to the future,
Looking backward, we are sad;
For now you see, we wish that we
Had given ALL we had.

CLASS TRIP

Early Sunday morning, February 17, thirty-two seniors boarded the train at Attleboro for a week of fun at Virginia, Washington, and New York. At Baltimore, we boarded the "City of Norfolk" for an overnight cruise down Chesapeake Bay. Arriving in Virginia, we toured the battlegrounds of Yorktown and especially enjoyed historic Williamsburg. That night the steamer took us and our newly acquired "Southern accents" back to Baltimore. On Tuesday, we met our bus driver, Billy Buttons, who showed us the Annapolis Naval Academy, and the Capitol and other famous buildings in Washington. From our "base camp" at the Hotel Annapolis, we also visited the Smithsonian Institute and Mount Vernon, and enjoyed an evening at the Casino Royal. (Our only casualty occurred in Washington. Doug Weilding tripped on the steps of the Lincoln Memorial and had five stitches taken in his chin.) EARLY Thursday morning we left for New York. We visited Radio City Music Hall, which featured the Rockettes and the movie SPIRIT OF ST. LOUIS. That night, three groups went to a basketball game, a stage show, and to Birdland, the "Jazz Corner of the World." Friday morning we shopped, and in the afternoon, toured lower New York, which included Chinatown and the Bowery. Then we boarded the train for home, sorry our wonderful trip was over, but eager to tell everyone in Norton all about it!

Now is the hour--8:35 Sunday morning.

An early, EARLY breakfast in Washington.

Judy and Jackie are finally put in their place.

Oh, that co-ol breeze!

Guardian angels.

"Are we there yet?"

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior class of Norton High School, in the county of Bristol, and the state of hopelessness, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

To the Juniors, we will and bequeath all the fun we've had in our four years of high school and the hope that they can live up to our standards.

To the Sophomores, we will and bequeath our ability to make a lot of noise without even trying.

To the Freshmen, we will and bequeath all our best luck and good wishes. (You'll need it!)

To the unfortunate creatures whom we are forced to leave behind, we leave the following:

Donna Blanchard leaves her forgetfulness to Mrs. Harnden. (Well, then there now!)
George Burgess leaves at the sound of the fire siren in a cloud of dust.
Alan Burke leaves his red hair to Dave Honey.
Luther Carter leaves his suave manner to Jerry Evans.
Janice Cassidy leaves her "southern drawl" to Sandy Medeiros, and her art ability to David Gunner.
Patty Courbron leaves her inky hands to Miss Rapoza.
Dottie Dadmun leaves her flair for parties to Gail Walker.
Carlene Davis leaves her neatness to Diane D'Angelo.
Harriet Doherty leaves her hustle and bustle to Judy Clark.
Peggy Finnimore leaves her size four shoe to Cinnie Winsor and Her "A's" in Chemistry to Blanche Polk.
Barbara Fitzgerald leaves Bertha's clothes to Bertha.
Claire Gagne leaves her arguments with Mr. Paulus to Grace Lynch.
Patty Gross leaves her nice, quiet, refined manner to Alan Gilchrist.
Gail Henlin leaves efficiency and dependability to Leone Lokitis.
Judy Holbrook leaves Pat Boone, Eddie Fisher, Julie LaRosa, Harry Belafonte, and the Four Sharps, to Barbara Fitzgerald.
Benny Keene leaves his curly hair to Bob Eddleston.
Annette LaRosee leaves her lively sense of humor to Avis Rubin.
Jackie LaRosee leaves her ability to drive a car in a straight line, even when the road turns, to Richard Holbert.
Diane Marshall generously leaves all her spare time (ha! ha!) to Mr. Paulus.
Janice Massie leaves her horse to Mr. Yelle, who, unfortunately, will not appreciate it one bit.
Rosie Murphy leaves her "A" grades to Sally Robbins, and some pencils that say "Murphy's Auto Parts" to all English students who have none.
Sally Rand leaves Tommy to no one.
Judy Robbins reluctantly leaves "Elvis Presley" to Johnny Marshall.
Florence Rubak leaves her height to Bob "Tiger" Smith.
Kay Sullivan leaves those "Chemistry Blues" To Cynthia Winsor.
Betty Thorne leaves her slow walk to Marlene Thurston.
Judy Thurston leaves her beguiling smile to Carolyn Miller.
Harvey Walker leaves his system (on a piece of paper the size of a playing card) to future math classes---for a small sum, of course.
Doug Weilding leaves "Fabian" to Mr. Randall; no "but's" about it.
Bob Harrison leaves his stature and persistent questions to Troy Kosinski.
Tom Perry leaves his governorship to the next REPUBLICAN governor of Mass.
Ralph Kenniston leaves his hot rod to Mrs. Findlater, plus his red hat to keep away the drafts, and his Teddy boots to keep away the rusty water from the radiator.
Noel Wiggins leaves the cow that George hit, to the cafeteria, to be used to make beef stew for the next four years.

STUDENT COUNCIL

President: Diane Marshall
Vice President: Donald Roy
Secretary: Kay Sullivan
Assistant Secretary: Annette LaRosee
Advisor: Mrs. Jean Findlater

Early in the year, Student Council held its election of officers. Realists opposed Idealists in a full-scale campaign with party platforms, posters, conventions, and mascots. After candidates gave speeches at an assembly, the student body marked its ballots.

The first part of the year was taken up by planning for the Convention of the S.E.B.S.C. After Christmas, the Council helped the Amvets in the March of Dimes Drive by selling balloons. A school drive brought in $62.00. In February, members acted as hosts for the A Cappella Choir from Melrose. The council auditioned a filmstrip on Parliamentary Procedure and decided to purchase it for the school. Shortly before the last basketball game, a contest was held to determine a name for the team. "Lancers" was chosen. In March, a special assembly took place, at which students gave their own views for ironing out school problems. With these suggestions, Student Council went to work. At Sports Night, faculty basketball teams played the varsity for the benefit of the scholarship fund.

THE CONVENTION

On December third, Norton Student Council was host to forty schools of the Southeastern Branch of Student Councils. Our program featured an excellent speaker, Dr. Allan K. Chalmers, who spoke on the topic, "The World We Want." Ten special discussion groups were organized, based on this theme. The gym and cafeteria were decorated, and after a dinner of chicken pie, there was dancing to the music of "The Serenaders."

The Council had plenty of help in making table decorations.

LATIN CLUB

First Consul: Judith Robbins
Second Consul: Cinthia Winsor
Scribe: Rosemarie Murphy
Quaestor: Paul Tausek
Advisor: Mrs. Jean Findlater

The Latin Club is one of the most active organizations of the school. Some of its activities are as follows: In October, members were invited to view a film on early Egypt at Wheaton College. In November was held the annual "Salutario" and "Initatio"--breakfast in the morning, with new members dressed in slave costumes, and the rigorous initiation at night. The new members wore their costumes throughout the day, and were forced to perform certain duties for upperclassmen. In February, the Latin Club entertained fifty members of Taunton's Latin Club with a tea, dance, and skit. In April, Caesar's funeral took place, followed by a banquet. The State meeting of the Jr. Classical League was at Worcester in May, and members of the Norton Latin Club attended it.

HONOR SOCIETY

President, Diane Marshall
Vice President, Rosie Murphy
Secretary, Gail Henlin
Treasurer, Betty Thorne
Advisor, Mrs. Jean Findlater

Norton's chapter of the National Honor Society was first formed last year. Attleboro's chapter installed our members in a gala ceremony, after which refreshments were served to both groups and to parents. There are certain conditions for membership in the society. Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors, who have averaged 85% or better all through high school, are eligible. Fifteen per cent of the Senior class, ten per cent of the Juniors, and five per cent of the Sophomores (probationary members) may join, and new members are chosen by a committee of five faculty. They base their selection on character, service, and leadership. This year the Honor Society was in charge of the U.N. Day assembly, to which the public was invited. The assembly featured speeches by four girls from Wheaton College who had studied abroad. Induction of new members of the Honor Society was held in March.

The Photography Club was formed six years ago. At the present time it has some excellent equipment, including three cameras and a flash attachment given last year by Argus. At weekly meetings the members learn techniques such as lighting, posing, developing, printing, and enlarging. These skills are practiced in the darkroom.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

During the year the Junior Red Cross has accomplished the following projects: In November, a charitable Thanksgiving basket. In December, Christmas cards and favors, and embroidered hankies for convalescent homes. Valentine's Day nut cups were made in February for the Veterans' Hospital. Later, Easter cards and decorated eggs were made, members took a field trip, and also attended the Red Cross Conference. Club dues and cake sale profits are deposited in the Red Cross fund for charity. Red Cross displays may be seen in the school showcase.

DRAMATIC CLUB

Vice President - - - - - - - - -Grace Lynch
Secretary - - - - - - - - - - - Blanche Polk
Treasurer - - - - - - - - - - - Robert Smith
Director - Mr. Homer Paulus

The Dramatic Club was formed five years ago. At meetings after school, members rehearse for plays, and learn technique, such as make-up. The club has made all of its own scenery. This year, a three act comedy, "Act Your Age" was produced, starring Sally Robbins, Johnny Marshall, Pat Casey, Bruce Roberts, Diane D'Angelo, and Sandra Wilhelm. A short skit, "The Man Who Thought of Everything," was enjoyed by surrounding schools at the Student Council Convention in December. In March, the Dramatic Club produced a comedy-mystery drama "Four Flights Up."

Secretary - - - - - - - - - - Sandra Wilhelm
Treasurer - - - - - - - - - Nancy Davenport

The Pep Club was organized this year to help promote school spirit. At the start of the basketball season, members sponsored a rally, and encouraged the student body to learn the cheers. They secured buses for transportation to away games, and sold coke, and purple and gold shakers, at home games. Dances held after games, and the sale of sweat shirts, were other important functions.
